Down by the Station Day

- Presentation from Rose Fitzgerald. Going to be May 9, 2009, the Saturday of Mothers Day weekend. The Historical Society has paid for 3 Historic Markers. The dedication times are fluid, but the first one will occur around 10am. Properties on the White Horse Pike will all be invited to participate. Restaurants we hope will have Railroad Cookbook inspired specials. Joe Riggs has generously allowed use of his parking lot. Paul Ciervo is working on donating a moonbounce for childrens' entertainment. 2pm annual Walking Tour conducted by Rose and Margaret Westfield. Bob Cubberley and the Railroad Society will be having presentations, and the Historical Society will be presenting a slide show.

Michael @ Olde Town Pharmacy

- Our newest member Michael from Olde Town Pharmacy introduced himself to the HHBPA and explained this is his 3rd venture in Pharmacies, and that he is excited for the opportunity to serve our community and to provide quality items at highly competitive prices. Please give him a try !

Michael & George Trams

- Presentation on "Pick a Town Yellow Pages". Local advertising to local markets. $72/year per business, $6/per month per town listed in. Option to advertise in more than 1 town.

Easter Egg Hunt

- HHBPA has made $300 donation to the town Easter Egg hunt coordinated by Councilwoman Trish Shields. If you would like your business cards included in the plastic Easter Egg Hunt, please get them over to Paul @ Main Street Realty by April 4th.

Fall Festival

- Fall Festival really needs someone looking for part time work, is a very big and important project, probably 200-300 person-hours, salary is approximately $2,000, basic functions include acting as point of contact for vendors, crafters, etc. Rose asked perhaps this is something someone or a group from the HHBPA would like to take on. If interested please contact Rose.
